Writ Petition No. 488 of 2001 (SB)
(Old no. 36710 of 1992)

Pyarelal Aswal ……. Petitioner

Vs.

Secretary/ General Secretary,
Distt. Cooperatvie Bank Ltd.
Tehri, Distt. Tehri- Garhwal
And another ……. Respondents.

……

Hon'ble A.A. Desai, C.J.
Hon'ble M.C. Jain, J.

The petitioner was served with show cause notice as to why his service should not be terminated as he was imputed about financial irregularities committed in issuing over drafts to the customers.

The petitioner approached to the Court and obtained stay against this order and also of suspension. As a consequence, it is reported that the respondents revoking his suspension allowed him to continue. Consequently, he has retired. Now the petitioner claims that he got full salary for the period he rendered service. However, subsistence allowance has been paid during the period he was placed on suspension. Therefore, he claims the difference of regular pay and subsistence allowance during the period he was placed under suspension.

Having regard to the facts as involved, we are not inclined to exercise our extra ordinary jurisdiction.

The petition is, therefore, dismissed.
